2019 United Nations World Interfaith Harmony Week

“Religion and Human Rights in Australia”

The University of Melbourne Chaplaincy and Religions for Peace Victoria Branch, invite you to a free lecture with PROFESSOR GILLIAN TRIGGS

Tuesday 5th February at Melbourne University 5.30 – 8.00pm

Emeritus Professor Gillian Triggs is the former President of the Australian Human Rights Commission 2012-2017, and the new Chair of Justice Connect, a nonprofit dedicated to connecting people locked out of the justice system with free legal help. She is also Vice Chancellor’s Fellow at the University of Melbourne and Vice President of the Asian Development Bank Tribunal.

World Interfaith Harmony Week is an annual event observed during the first week of February commencing in 2011. The week provides a platform—one week in a year—when all interfaith groups and other groups of goodwill can show the world what interfaith harmony, co-operation and understanding may achieve.

Carrillo Gantner Theatre, B-02 (Basement), Sidney Myer Asia Centre, University of Melbourne, 761 Swanston St, Parkville
