Call to Worship

The Lord be with you!

And also with you!

May the kings of Tarshish

and of the isles render him tribute,

May all kings fall down before him,

all nations give him service.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the Virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father,
who with the Father and the Son
is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Christ is the bread of Resurrection, new life for all.

Christ is the cup of salvation,
wounded for our healing.

The gifts of God for the people of God....

Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world: have mer-cy on us, have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world: have mer-cy on us, have mer-cy on us Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world: grant us peace, grant us peace.

...Let us receive what we are,
let us become what we receive
The body of Christ

The Communion

The Uniting Church recognises this Table as the Lord's and, so, open to all who would normally commune in their home congregations.

GATHERING: We'll gather in a circle around the table for the distribution of the elements; please wait until all have received and the prayer is said before returning to your seats.

If you can't stand or walk to the front but would like to receive communion, please raise your hand if the celebrant has not already noticed you.

Post Communion Prayer

Offering

(We remain seated as the offering is brought forward)

Many members now make their offering by electronic transfer; the plate will be passed for those who prefer to make cash/envelope offerings. The prayer dedicating the offerings 'captures' the full range of gifts.

Journey of the Magi

TS Eliot

'A cold coming we had of it,/Just the worst time of the year/For a journey, and such a long journey:/The ways deep and the weather sharp,/The very dead of winter./And the camels galled, sore-footed, refractory,/Lying down in the melting snow./There were times we regretted/The summer palaces on slopes, the terraces,/And the silken girls bringing sherbet./Then the camel men cursing and grumbling/And running away, and wanting their liquor and women,/And the night-fires going out, and the lack of shelters,/And the cities hostile and the towns unfriendly/And the villages dirty and charging high prices:/A hard time we had of it./At the end we preferred to travel all night,/Sleeping in snatches,/With the voices singing in our ears, saying/That this was all folly.

Then at dawn we came down to a temperate valley,/Wet, below the snow line, smelling of vegetation;/With a running stream and a water-mill beating the darkness,/And three trees on the low sky,/And an old white horse galloped away in the meadow./Then we came to a tavern with vine-leaves over the lintel,/Six hands at an open door dicing for pieces of silver,/And feet kicking the empty wine-skins,/But there was no information, and so we continued/And arrived at evening, not a moment too soon/Finding the place;
it was (you may say) satisfactory.

All this was a long time ago, I remember,/And I would do it again, but set down/This set down/This: were we led all that way for/Birth or Death? There was a Birth, certainly,/We had evidence and no doubt. I had seen birth and death,/But had thought they were different; this Birth was/Hard and bitter agony for us, like Death, our death./We returned to our places, these Kingdoms,/But no longer at ease here, in the old dispensation,/With an alien people clutching their gods./I should be glad of another death.

Egypt

Egypt was the cradle of one of the world's great civilizations. An empire grew up around 3200 BC in the Nile valley, and a series of dynasties ruled Egypt for the next three millennia. The last dynasty fell to the Persians in 341 BC who in turn were replaced by the Greeks, and later the Romans. The Arabs introduced Islam and Arabic in the 7th century and ruled Egypt until it was taken over by the Turks in 1517. Britain seized control of the country in 1822. Egypt recovered full sovereignty after World War II, and became a republic in 1952 under President Nasser, who nationalized the Suez Canal in 1956. Another major milestone was the construction of the Aswan dam in Upper Egypt, which was finished in 1971. Egypt fought three wars with Israel in 1956, 1967 and 1973, before it signed the Camp David peace agreement in 1978. It is the most populated country in the Arab world. It struggles with huge economic problems and social inequalities. Egypt was Christianized as of the first century and Alexandria was one of the main centres of the early church. Islam is the majority religion, but the Coptic Christians still form a sizeable minority. The Copts are the descendants of the ancient Egyptians. Besides the Coptic Orthodox Church, there is also the smaller Greek Orthodox Church of Alexandria. Anglican, Catholic and Protestant-Evangelical and Pentecostal churches have come into being in the 19th and 20th century, mostly - but not only - among the Copts. The Fellowship of Evangelicals in Egypt is affiliated with the WEA.

Jordan

Jordan is a Muslim nation, but it embraces the region traversed by Jesus in his earthly journeys, where Jacob wrestled with the angel, the mountain from which Moses saw the Promised Land, and the country of Ruth. The majority of Christians are Greek Orthodox, but there are sizeable Armenian, Latin, Greek Catholic and Anglican communities and some small but thriving Protestant groups. Christians enjoy freedom of worship and have contributed greatly to education and social service.

NOTICES

AKBAR OUR NEIGHBOUR

Akbar, the Iranian asylum seeker supported by this congregation since his release from (illegal) detention in 2013, continues to live in Australia with no visa, no work rights and no legal status. Thanks to his generously/privately funded North Melbourne gardening 'work', and the regular financial contributions of some of our congregation members he enjoys some financial independence. He has recently overcome an accommodation 'crisis' with practical assistance from these sources. Akbar is included in our prayers of intercession on the first Sunday in each month.

St Mary's Anglican Church, 430 Queensbury Street,

North Melbourne

Entrance by donation

In 1321, St Catherine's monastery in Rouen installed a clock whose mechanical bells played the Advent hymn Conditor alme siderum (Dear Creator of the Stars) before the striking of the hour. Over the coming centuries, musical clocks appeared across Europe, crossed the Atlantic to the Americas, and travelled with the Jesuits into Asia. In collaboration with the Australian Research Council project 'The Sounds of Time', this program explores the melodies that were played on these remarkable and innovative devices.
