Today's service is being live-streamed for the participation of those who can't join us physically today.

If you are able, please stand as the Scriptures are brought into the worship space.

Call to Worship

The Lord be with you!
And also with you!

Come, worship the Lord;
the Lord our God is our hope.

The Lord is your strong rock,
a castle and a stronghold
to keep us safe.

(Psalm 71)

With the Children

The Word Spoken: Scripture and Preaching

TONE

¹In you, O LORD, | I take refuge;
let me never be | put to shame.

²In your righteousness deliver | me and rescue me;
incline your ear to | me and save me.

³Be to me a rock of refuge, a strong | fortress, to save me,
for you are my rock | and my fortress.

⁴Rescue me, O my God, from the | hand of the wicked,
from the grasp of the | unjust and cruel.

⁵For you, O Lord, | are my hope,
my trust, O LORD, | from my youth.

⁶Upon you I have | leaned from my birth;
it was you who took me from my mother's womb.
My praise is | always of you.

⁷I have been like a por- | -tent to many,
but you are | my strong refuge.

⁸My mouth is filled | with your praise,
and with your glory | all day long.

⁹Do not cast me off in the time | of old age;
do not forsake me when my | strength is spent.

²⁰You who have made me see many troubles and calamities will
 revive | me again;
from the depths of the earth you will bring me | up again.

²¹You will increase | my honour,
and comfort me | once again.

²³My lips will shout for joy when I sing prai- | -ses to you;
my soul also, which | you have rescued.

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

Affirmation of faith: God is with us

We are not alone,
we live in God's world.

We believe in God:
who has created and is creating,
who has come in Jesus,
the Word made flesh,

to reconcile and make new,
who works in us and others
by the Spirit.

We trust in God.

We are called to be the Church:
to celebrate God's presence,
to live with respect in Creation,
to love and serve others,
to seek justice and resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen,
our judge and our hope.

In life, in death, in life beyond death,
God is with us.

We are not alone.
Thanks be to God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

 your will be done,
 on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins,
 as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial
 and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours
 now and for ever. Amen.

(The people sit)

The Breaking of the Bread

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world: have mer - cy on us, have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world: have mer - cy on us, have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world: grant us peace, grant us peace.

...Let us receive what we are,
 let us become what we receive

The body of Christ

The Communion

The Uniting Church recognises this Table as the Lord's and, so, open to all who would normally commune in their home congregations.

GATHERING: We'll gather in a circle around the table for the distribution of the elements; please wait until all have received and the prayer is said before returning to your seats.

If you can't stand or walk to the front but would like to receive communion, please raise your hand if the celebrant has not already noticed you.

Offering

(We remain seated as the offering is brought forward)

Many members now make their offering by electronic transfer; the plate will be passed for those who prefer to make cash/envelope offerings. The prayer dedicating the offerings 'captures' the full range of gifts.

The Ecumenical Prayer Cycle

Algeria

Algeria is the second largest country in Africa after Sudan. It became independent in 1962 after more than 130 years of French colonial rule and a bitter liberation struggle. In cooperation with the small churches in the country and the Algerian government, the WCC, CIMADE and other ecumenical agencies founded in 1962 the Christian Committee for Service in Algeria. After a period of emergency relief, the CCSA developed a vast reafforestation programme. By 1965, more than 22 million fruit and timber trees had been planted and another 50 million seedlings were handed over to the government. Ever since independence, the National Liberation Front (FLN) has dominated politics in Algeria, although a surprising first round electoral success of the fundamentalist Islamic National Front (FIS) in 1991 spurred the army to intervene, to prevent the Islamists from forming a government. Since then Algeria has struggled through a continuous low level civil conflict between Islamic activists and the secular state apparatus. This terrorism has had a profound impact among the Algerian population, of whom nearly 100,000 were killed before the FIS's armed wing was disbanded in January 2000. In 2005 the population voted in favour of a referendum on national reconciliation. While progress towards peace is slowly being made, better living conditions for the people and democratization continue to be Algeria's greatest challenge.

NOTICES

AKBAR OUR NEIGHBOUR

Akbar, the Iranian asylum seeker supported by this congregation since his release from (illegal) detention in 2013, continues to live in Australia with no visa, no work rights and no legal status. Thanks to his generously/privately funded North Melbourne gardening 'work', and the regular financial contributions of some of our congregation members he enjoys some financial independence. He has recently overcome an accommodation 'crisis' with practical assistance from these sources. Akbar is included in our prayers of intercession on the first Sunday in each month.

LENTEN STUDIES FOR 2025

Our Lenten Studies for 2025 will use Rowan Williams' Christ on Trial: How the Gospel Unsettles our Judgement.

FROM THE PUBLISHER

In this book the former Archbishop of Canterbury looks in depth at the trial of Jesus, using it to teach readers how to face the challenges of life in today's trying times.

Bringing the biblical accounts of Jesus' trial vividly to life, Rowan Williams highlights what can be learned about Jesus from each of the four Gospel portraits. These discussions are followed by a reflection on Christian martyrdom and a meditation on tyranny, freedom, and truth. Williams draws not only from the Bible but also from fiction, drama, and current events, pointing out ways in which society today continues to put Christ on trial. Even more, he argues that all Christians stand with Jesus before a watching world. Though we may not be directly confronted with death, we are nevertheless called daily to respond to the falsehood of such lures as power, influence, and prestige.

Two online (Zoom) groups are presently planned from Wednesday March 5 (7.45pm) and Friday March 7 (1.30PM), for six weeks (one week per chapter).
